CONTRA COSTA
transportation authority

Contra Costa continues to invest in infrastructure and programs that keep people moving and the economy humming. Combining long-range planning, deep public engagement, and cutting-edge technology, we're helping position Contra Costa for a vibrant future.

COUNTY-WIDE INVESTMENT

Contra Costa is diverse, including rural farm communities, suburban neighborhoods, and urban cores. Across the board, we're improving how everyone gets around.

Meeting the multitude of needs requires thoughtful planning and investing in transit, open space, accessibility, and building roads for all modes. This means improving our streets and highways while investing in transit and safe passages for pedestrians and bicyclists.

Contra Costa Transportation Authority's (CCTA) "Keep Contra Costa Moving" web tool was honored with the 2015 Digital Government Achievement Award for the most innovative use of social media in citizen engagement.

CITIZEN ENGAGEMENT

With a bottom-up governing structure, Contra Costa Transportation Authority (CCTA) directly engages local residents and governments to inform our work. Using award-winning web tools developed by CCTA, thousands of residents have expressed their priorities for the improvements they want to see, guiding CCTA's decisions and increasing our engagement with the public.

SOUND FISCAL STEWARDSHIP

One of CCTA's most critical responsibilities is serving as a steady steward of taxpayer dollars. As the agency tasked with managing the delivery of transportation programs and projects, CCTA is required to maintain a high level of accountability to Contra Costa voters.

Our prudent management of public dollars ensures that we're consistently delivering transportation improvements that meaningfully enhance the quality of life for county residents. CCTA operates with a 1% cap on our agency's administrative expenses, meaning minimum overhead for maximum project delivery.

For our sound financial stewardship, CCTA has been awarded the Government Finance Officers Association Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting award for three years running.

CCTA is rated AAA from Fitch Ratings-- the highest bond rating attainable!
